General Terms and Conditions applicable to the whole of the policy

Section 6

6.1. Claims – The things which you must do

If there is an incident which may result in a claim – either in respect of damage to the vehicle or a possible claim by a third party against you – phone CLAIMLINE as soon as possible. CLAIMLINE will advise you and safeguard your interest.

You must also:

- 6.1.1. send us immediately any writ or summons or letter before action and any other letter or communication which you receive;
- 6.1.2. tell us immediately about any claim or allegation made against you verbally;
- 6.1.3. notify us immediately of any impending prosecution, inquest or fatal injury inquiry;
- 6.1.4. not admit to, negotiate on, promise to pay or refuse any claim unless you have written permission from us;
- 6.1.5. give us all the information and assistance which we require;
- 6.1.6. not act in any way to prejudice our interests.
- 6.1.7. if you do not comply with any part of any condition which makes payment of a claim conditional upon compliance with it and such compliance would tend to reduce:
 - a) losses of a particular kind;
 - b) losses of a particular location;
 - c) losses of a particular time;we will not pay for any claim unless you can show that non-compliance with the condition could not have increased the risk of the loss that actually occurred in the circumstances that occurred.

Where possible, and provided it is safe to do so, take photos of the accident scene, the positions of the vehicles and of the damage caused to the vehicles involved.

In the event of a claim covered by this policy, you must continue to pay the premium. If payment is not made we may:

- cancel your policy in accordance with the General Terms and Conditions and seek payment of the outstanding balance of premium;

- refuse to pay any claim on or after the due date of the premium;
- reserve the right to deduct any outstanding premium from the claim payment, if the claim is for loss or damage to your vehicle which is covered by this policy;
- recover from you the outstanding balance of premium or seek reimbursement from you of any claim payment which has already been made.

If the vehicle is stolen, broken into, subject of attempted theft, or damaged deliberately, you must report the incident to the police as soon as possible and obtain a crime reference number.

You are obliged to take all reasonable actions to minimise the cost of a claim under your policy of insurance. We will assist and advise you in this regard, to the best of our ability in the light of our knowledge of the circumstances.

6.2. Claims – Our Rights

We are entitled to take over and conduct the defence or settlement of any claim.

We may pursue any claim in the name of the person insured for our own benefit and at our own expense.

6.3. Compulsory Insurance Law – Right of Recovery

If the laws of any country require us to make a payment for which we would not otherwise be liable, we have the right to recover the amount from you or the person claiming.

6.4. Fraudulent Claims

If you or anyone acting for you makes a claim under the policy knowing the claim to be false or fraudulently presented in any respect, or if any loss or damage or injury is caused by your wilful act or with your complicity, we will not pay the claim and all cover under the policy is forfeited with immediate effect and we will also be entitled to reclaim from you any payments which we have already made or committed to make in respect of the claim.

6.5. Looking after the Vehicle

The vehicle must be kept roadworthy and in good repair. In the event of a claim we will have the right to examine the vehicle. Any person covered under the policy must take reasonable steps to protect the vehicle from loss or damage.

6.6. Other Insurance

If any loss or damage is covered by any other insurance, we will not pay more than our rateable proportion. This does not override any exception relating to other insurance policies elsewhere in this policy.

6.7. Cancelling your Policy

You may cancel your policy at any time through your insurance broker.

6.7.1. Within the first 14 days

If you or we cancel the policy within 14 days of the date you receive your policy document, you will be entitled to a pro-rata refund of premium provided no claim has been made during the current period of insurance and subject to a minimum premium of £35 (plus Insurance Premium Tax).

6.7.2. After the first 14 days

If you cancel the policy after 14 days of the date you receive your policy document, you will be entitled to a pro-rata refund of premium provided no claim has been made during the current period of insurance less a charge of £35.

6.7.3. Where we cancel your policy

We may cancel your policy where there is a valid reason for doing so by giving you seven days' notice in writing to your last known address. We will refund any premium which may be due to you in accordance with the terms of this condition. Valid reasons may include but are not limited to:

- if you advise us of a change of risk under your policy which we are unable to insure;
- where you fail to respond to requests from us for further information or documentation;
- where you have given incorrect information and fail to provide clarification when requested;
- the use of threatening or abusive behaviour or language, or intimidation or bullying of our staff or suppliers, by you or any person acting on your behalf.

Please note that for points 6.8, you may also be charged a fee by your insurance broker for the cancellation of your insurance.

6.8. Financial sanctions

We will not provide any cover or be liable to provide any indemnity, payment or other benefit under this policy where doing so would breach any prohibition or restriction imposed by law or regulation.

6.9. Your duty to check information and tell us of any changes

It is important you check your most recent Statement of Facts as this sets out the information we were given when we agreed to provide you with the cover and the terms of your policy.

Although we may undertake checks to verify your information, you must take reasonable care to ensure all information provided by you or on your behalf is accurate and complete.

You must tell us immediately if any of your information is incorrect or changes. If we have wrong information this may result in an increased premium and/or claims not being paid in full, or your insurance may not be valid and claims will not be paid. Please refer to point 6.9.3 for full details. If you are in any doubt about any information, contact us as soon as possible.

6.9.1. Changes to information we need to be informed of include, but are not limited to, these situations and apply equally to all drivers covered under the policy:

- A change to the drivers.
- A change to the vehicle.
- Criminal convictions that are not spent under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act.
- Any vehicle modifications.
- Motoring convictions including fixed penalties or pending prosecutions for motoring offences.
- Motoring disqualifications.
- A change of ownership or use of the vehicle.
- A change in full or part time occupation.
- A change of address or where the vehicle is kept overnight.
- Any accidents whether resulting in a claim or not and thefts of or from the vehicle.
- A change to the annual mileage.

- A change to the type of licence held and the date the test was passed.
- Any health matters affecting ability to drive.

6.9.2. If you change the insured vehicle, the drivers or how you use the insured vehicle, we may not be liable until we have issued a new Policy Schedule and either a Cover Note or Motor Insurance Certificate. If you make any changes to your insured vehicle your insurance will not be valid until we have agreed to accept them.

Any changes, if accepted by us, will apply from the date indicated on your updated Policy Schedule. In this case we will be entitled to vary the premium and terms for the rest of the period of insurance.

If the changes are unacceptable to us and we are no longer able to provide you with cover, we or you can cancel your policy, as set out under the general terms and conditions.

6.9.3. If you have given us inaccurate information this can affect your policy in one or more of the following ways:

- 1) If we would have charged you a higher premium for providing your cover, we will have the option to:
 - a. charge you the appropriate additional premium, to be paid in full.
 - b. If a claim has been intimated, we may adopt a proportional approach, where we calculate the proportion of the premium that was paid and base the settlement on that proportion. In this circumstance, in order for cover to continue the balance of the additional premium up to the expiry date of the policy will be charged.

- 2) If we would not have provided you with any cover we will have the option to:
 - a. void the policy, which means we will treat it as if it had never existed and repay the premium paid; and
 - b. seek to recover any money from you for any claims we have already paid, including the amount of any costs or expenses we have incurred.
- 3) If we would have applied different terms to your cover, we will have the option to treat your policy as if those different terms apply.

6.10. Multiple Excess

Sometimes more than one excess can apply in which case we add them together. Ask your insurance broker for more details of the total excess which may apply.

6.11. Law Applicable

The law of England and Wales will apply to this policy unless you reside permanently in Scotland, Northern Ireland, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man, in which case the law applicable locally will apply.
